OUTSTANDING DEBT POLICY

If, at any time, the District discovers that a current customer or their spouse has an outstanding bad debt from a prior service with the District, notification will be sent to the customer at their current service address of this outstanding debt and the terms within which payment can be made.

If payment arrangements are not made to the satisfaction of management, and the terms specified are not met, the District reserves the right to disconnect the water service at the customer's current residence until restitution is made on the outstanding debt.
