Consultations by the hour:

So the wedding planning is going along quite smoothly, but there is that one special vendor you can't find, or you need help creating your wedding day timeline, or you just want someone to review what you have done to make sure you have it all covered.

Not a problem. We can offer help through our hourly consultation services.

Schedule an hour or two with our Senior Event Planner or Event Planner to discuss any questions or concerns you might have. Rates will be provided to you at the time you book the consultation, as our rates do vary based on time of year and whether or not you work with our Senior Planner or Event Planner.

At Simply Significant Events and Occasions we will guide you through the wedding planning process...from beginning to end...no wedding is too large or too small. You will work with the most talented wedding professionals available to create YOUR dream wedding and bring YOUR vision to life.

Our goal is to create a seamless wedding experience that will bring joy and amazement to you and your guests.

Your wedding will be the example all of your friends want to follow!
