

THE EDGE OF PERCEPTION: RICHARD FENNEL RETROSPECTIVE

JUNE 16 – AUGUST 20, 2017

The Edge of Perception: Richard Fennell Retrospective celebrates one of the state's leading artists who has shown his works at GreenHill throughout his career. Richard Fennell has pursued the edge of perception for more than 40 years through seeking "to merge the visual truth of what is seen with the basic abstract elements inherent in painting and nature." Visitors will be able to see the evolution of Fennell's approach from his early sculptures, still lifes, interiors, and portraits to the luminous landscapes that figure in private and corporate collections throughout the Southeast. Full color catalogue available online and in The Shop.
