

Wedding Ceremonies

As a fully ordained clergy member and an officially documented, legal (licensed) wedding officiant, it is my proud honor to be a part of your most special and joyous celebration! Ceremonies performed are Christian influenced and non denominational with the focus on your loyalty, love, and devotion to one another. With God and his love and blessings for your marriage at the center, your lifelong commitment will be the most exciting journey of your life and it is my passion and honor to officially get your journey started!

Whether you choose simplicity and elegance for your ceremony, or a ceremony incorporating readings, traditions, and rituals; my effort is to incorporate your vision, style, and unique story into your personalized ceremony. It is also important to mention that it is NOT the length or extravagance of your ceremony that will justify your commitment to one another. Remember, at this point you have already made the decision to share in life's joys, trials, and exciting moments. Your ceremony is the time to officially recognize your promises and outwardly express your pledge to friends, family, God, and each other!

My purpose is to make your "love story" official! Performing your ceremony is a very serious honor and true joy for me. Recognizing and incorporating the existence and importance of God in a healthy marriage is also vital. Whether barefoot on the beach, at a church, resort, or in your backyard, my emphasis is to unify your love no matter the surroundings. So lets have fun, lets plan a beautifully loving ceremony that fits your style, and finally, LETS GET MARRIED!
