

Explore Cambodia and Myanmar Through the Lens

Sample of Bagan Temples, Bagan, 2001 (Richard Murai)

Join Viewpoint Photographic Art Center and northern California photographer and educator, Rick Murai (www.richardmurai.com) on an exciting photographic journey to the magical cities and sacred sites of Cambodia and Myanmar (Burma). Become immersed in a photographic experience amidst remote cultures, ancient temple architecture and stunning landscapes. Enjoy an opportunity of a lifetime to produce unique photos while enjoying safe and comfortable accommodations at an excellent value.

Touring photographers will visit Phnom Penh, Cambodia's capital; Tuol Sleng prison and the Killing Fields; Siem Reap's sprawling temples and markets; the ancient religious city of Angkor Wat; Yangon, Myanmar's capital, with its imposing Schwedigon Pagoda; Bagan, one of the world's preeminent sacred centers; and Inle Lake with its intriguing floating villages and farming communities.

This custom photographic workshop designed specifically for photographers of all proficiency levels and varied camera formats allows flexibility over the itinerary and ample time to photograph at each location. There will be early morning and evening photo sessions, guest speakers, group/individual formal and informal teaching and image sharing.

Boost your photography skills and enjoy two fascinating countries with Rick Murai, widely exhibited, published and a recipient of a 2008 UK Travel Photographer of the Year award. Rick's extensive teaching and travel experience is sure to make this a rewarding and unforgettable trip.

Dates: January 3 through January 17, 2011

Cost: $3765./double occupancy, $545./single supplement

Includes: local guides, land transportation, lodging with private baths, intra-Asia airfare, entrance and camera fees. All breakfasts, most lunches and a some dinners are included.

Not Included: USA-Bangkok airfare, mandatory travel insurance, visa fees, airport taxes, last night's lodging in Bangkok, tips, optional activities and personal purchases.

The photographic workshop is limited to 14 participants

For detailed information and registration go to: www.viewpointgallery.org