A lifestyle brand for the Modern Man and Woman
-Since 2003-

"Fashion is what I love...who I am...what I do best...what makes me happy.

It's my life...all I want to do in life...it's what I think about. My joy stems from making people happy and feeling beautiful."

THE VISIONARY

GLENROY MARCH

Glenroy March, Jamaican-born New York based fashion designer, Tastemaker and chief couturier of the revered design brand, House of D'Marsh has been driving creative conversations in the fashion industry for almost two decades. The award-winning designer who received his early training from top Caribbean fashion house Uzuri International as an intern assistant designer, has since gone on to a successful career as an award winning designer whose designs have adorned the runways and showrooms across the globe. Since its inception, D'Marsh Couture collections have debuted in the Caribbean, the United States, Asia and most recently the continent of Africa. Among the international shows the designer has appeared includes the Guangzhou International Fashion Week in China and Mercedes-Benz Fashion Week Accra in Ghana.

With an eye for detail and perfection, March honed his design skills at the prestigious American Academy of Dramatic Arts in New York, obtaining practical experience while working in the costume department. The formation of House of D'Marsh has given March the opportunity to marry sophistication with fashion-forward sensibility. As a recipient of the 2008 McDonald's Designer of the Year Award and as Jamaica's youngest representative at the internationally renowned fashion competition; the "Total Look Award" in Toronto, Canada; March has long created a pathway for incredible service in the fashion industry.
